<ul style="list-style-type: none">• contact Wolfgang Wiedmeyer• He has a similar page on his website, look at the copyrights and re-do it from there• re-do it from scratch• consider that it's non-copyrightable work.

I created new web page that you can fetch with: git clone git://git.putti.eu/git-landing-page

#2 - 01/28/2020 01:40 AM - Denis 'GNUtoo' Carikli

- Status changed from New to Resolved

- Resolution set to fixed

Fixed.

I've uploaded the content in a git here:

<https://git.replicant.us/replicant/git.replicant.us-website>

I've also done some minor modifications to add the mirrors we had.

As the replicant.us website was under the cc-by-sa 3.0 I've picked the same license.

Feel free to reopen the bug if you have good arguments for picking another license.

Denis.
