In the Report from 36C3 we had the following:

* Someone let us know about Cellebrite[5], an Israeli company that sells mobile phone data extraction kiosks under the brand 'Universal Forensic Extraction Device' (UFED) [6].
[5] https://www.cellebrite.com
[6] https://www.cellebrite.com/en/ufed-ultimate/

But I didn't have the time to do research on that yet since the report. I'm unsure if other people had time to look into it either so I'm making this bug report not to forget about it.
